The Women's Research, Studies, Documentation and Information Center in Tunisia was founded in 1990. The Center is a permanent technical and scientific body for observing and assessing women's issues. The Centre provides services to various governmental and non-governmental organizations. The Centre is a focal point of information on the evolution of conditions for women for Tunisia and the Maghreb. CREDIF continues to be active in developing field projects with international organizations. The Center is also involved in programs with several United Nations organizations, the "Al Sabah" Funds, The Friedrich Naumann Foundation and the Ford Foundation. Madame Bouaziz's trip has been arranged in co-operation with the Canadian International Development Agency. The Institute cordially invites you to join us for this special occasion.
